About Dal Segno

Dal Segno (pronounced “Dahl SAYN-yo”) is a camp for musicians going into 6th-11th grade, run by Northern Valley Youth Orchestras. Students learn to work cooperatively with others at their playing level through chamber ensemble coaching and rehearsals that focus on improving rehearsal techniques, discovering new musical concepts, and developing a team approach to ensemble playing. It’s challenging, but a lot of fun! Camp days also include time for social activities and teamwork skill building. We say Dal Segno is “serious fun.”

NOTE: Dal Segno is a day camp only, with no supervision before or after registered sessions. If you are from out of town and are interested in a way to stay local the week of camp, Expressway Suites offers a reduced nightly rate (with code NVYO) for Dal Segno camp families, which includes a light evening meal and breakfast each day.

If you have questions or are unsure which session to choose, please call or email Naomi Welsh

nwelsh@novyo.org

701-757-3009 office. // 701-213-0310 cell.

Please read:

Students need to completely fill out information about their present playing levels and materials to be placed appropriately into chamber ensembles.

The five-day camp sessions will end with a public performance/share day on Friday, August 4th around noon at the Myra Museum Gazebo. Dal Segno students will all attend camp in the morning, and perform at 11:30 am. Students may share some music earlier in the week. There may also be an optional Saturday August 5th performance at the farmers market if enough campers are able to attend.

Please realize that due to the nature of small group ensemble playing, students must attend camp every day and be present at the concert. If your child will have any conflicts with camp days, please call Naomi Welsh (701-213-0310) before registering to find out if it will be possible to participate.
